

NEW SCHOOL AND
ALL AMERICANS

College of Journalism is Praised by Many as a Benefactor to the Public at Large in This Country.

NEWSPAPER IS AN EDUCATOR

Many Prominent Men Tell of Benefits Institution Endowed by Mr.
Joseph Pulitzer Will Give to the United States.

Columbia University's announcement of its plan to establish and maintain a School of Journalism through Mr.
Joseph Pulitzer's provision of $100,000 for that purpose, has aroused worldwide comment among publicists and journalists. Brief extracts from the many expressions follow:

George F. Rives, Corporation Counsel and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Columbia University, fully agrees with the opinion of Carl Schurz that the establishment of the School of Journalism is a matter of national importance, because it is the first really thorough attempt to try to educate persons for that profession.

Melville E. Stone, general manager of the Associated Press—Let us all hope that the founder's high ideals will be realized, and that from the school there shall come a class of men qualified for the most exalted position in American life.

Adolph Ochs, proprietor of the New York Times and Philadelphia Public Ledger (by cable from Munich)—Wisely, generously, you make provision for maintaining the best traditions of the best journalism in the world. May you live to see your noble plan assured of success. I pledge you my enthusiastic support.

Aids the Public.
James B. Angell, President of University of Michigan—If administered not in a narrow and technical spirit, but in the broad and generous spirit which has animated the benefactor in this attempt to elevate his profession, it should result in substantial benefit to journalism, and so should contribute greatly to the public welfare.

H. H. Cahan, editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Daily Chronicle—An established course in journalism which will enable men to enter the newspaper office specially educated for the work before them will inaugurate a new era in the profession.

Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press—The immediate effect will be to create a standard first for the newspaper and then for the individual journalist. The school will authoritatively define aims and methods. That will fix a recognized ideal.
There will be a tendency to reach toward the other professions—and it will elevate the standing of journalism to the level which it must reach before it can accomplish the best works that it is possible for it to achieve.

Nearest to Our Life.
Robert C. Ogden, President General Educational Fund—It will create higher standards of intelligence and character and will give increased dignity, power and influence to the profession that lies nearest to American thought and life.
D. H. Haines, editor Baltimore Sun —The giving of libraries and the endowment of colleges and universities are good things under all circumstances, but the newspaper is the great educator of the world; and a gift or endowment for the development of that institution on the lines proposed will do more than any fund for any other single educational purpose that can well be conceived.

Duke of Argyll—I fully agree with Mr. Elliot's scheme for the establishment of the useful office of the editor of the New York World.
Alfred Harmsworth, proprietor London Daily Mail—The scheme is entirely practical, if it is taken in hand by men of thorough journalistic experience, as we have proved here in London.
C. Arthur Pearson, proprietor London Daily Express—The Advisory Board selected creates confidence on both sides of the Atlantic and shows that for the first time the attempt to train journalists to be made on thoroughly serious, practical and comprehensive lines.

FIRE IN CONDUIT
FUSES LIGHT WIRES

Edison Co. and the Wall Street District the Chief Sufferers, and It Was Feared Ticker Service Might Be Interrupted.

Fire was discovered in a conduit of the Edison Electric Light Company in New street, opposite the southwest corner of the Stock Exchange, early to-day.
The feed wires of the Edison Co. supplying a number of office buildings with light and power, burst out for a distance of about forty feet. To repair the damage will require nearly a day.
The Gold & Stock Telegraph Co., which maintains an extensive ticker service in Wall street and throughout the city, began at once to test its wires to determine whether or not any of them had suffered through the fire, but failed to discover any interruption to its service.
New street, at the point where the fire occurred, is a hazardous underground surface with wires of all sorts.
When Patrolman Waldeck discovered the fire, he saw smoke coming up through the sidewalk in front of the Arcade Building, and turned in an alarm. The firemen took up a large section of the sidewalk before they could reach the conduit and flood fire.
The cellar of the Arcade Building was flooded deep with water. The fire was caused, it is thought, by defective insulation. A large gang of men at once began about repairing the damage.

DEMANDS MORE
PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Alderman John McGaul Acts on The World's Exposition of the Present Inadequate Supply and Asks that More Be Built.

HIS RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

It Calls on the Board of Estimate to Investigate the Matter and Appropriate a Sum Sufficient to Meet Requirement.

Alderman John T. McGaul, who was present at the opening of the present New York City Exposition, declared today at the meeting of the Board that 30,000 children will be unable to obtain admission when the schools open in September. These are the figures published in The World and based on estimates of the number of children in excess of the present accommodation in the public schools.
The Alderman introduced a resolution calling upon the Board of Estimate and Appropriation to investigate immediately the need for additional schools and to appropriate a sufficient amount of money to build the extra schools.
The resolution was adopted.

NO BLOOD FLOWS,
SKY IS SERENE

Mrs. Turner, Who Said She Would Slay, Is Reconciled to Her Husband, and the Asbury Park War Is Over.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ASBURY PARK, Aug. 12.—The Orville Turners, who created a sensation here yesterday, have left for Boston. The husband and wife are reconciled and they will begin life anew in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Jessie Turner, who is very pretty, came here several weeks ago from Newport, Ky., with her child, a bright little chap with curly yellow hair, to retain the custody of the child for whom the husband had obtained an order of the Kentucky court.
Yesterday the husband arrived and made an effort to get the child. The mother saw him, and, taking the child, hid it beneath the counter of her sister's restaurant, saying she would kill Turner before he should have it. Later she had Turner arrested, and he was locked up in the jail of the city.

When the case was called to-day it was apparent the husband and wife had become reconciled.
"We have made it all up," said Turner.
"Is that so?" said Lawyer Patterson.
"Then tear up the court order."
"I'll do it," replied Turner, and he took hold of the paper which was grasped from him by his lawyer.
"If you mean it, then discontinue your divorce suit," said Mr. Patterson.
"I'll do that, too," said Turner, whereupon he was taken to the judge's office, where all the papers were signed.

Turner was released and the reunited couple left for their new home.
BLAZE IS STARTED BY TURPENTINE.

Demijohn Dropped by Workman at Banker Davies's Home Causes Damage.

Through turpentine fumes coming in contact with a gas jet in the cellar of the home of J. D. Davies, a banker, of No. 24 Washington Square North, today, the house was damaged to the extent of several hundred dollars. Broderick and furnishings were damaged by the smoke.
Mr. Davies is in Europe on a wedding tour. The house is in the hands of decorators, who have been keeping their paints in the cellar. To-day Sasse Thel, one of the workmen, dropped a demijohn of turpentine and almost immediately the fumes reached the gas jet and the place was in flames. Thel fell almost unconscious from the fumes and smoke.
Patrolmen Hedman and Creedman, of the Mercer street station, were near by.
One sent in an alarm while the other went into the cellar and dragged Thel out. A few minutes in the fresh air revived him.

WATER RUINED WAISTS.

Overflow from on Top Dike $2,500 Damage to Silk Stock.

By the neglect of a careless employee to turn off the water on the third floor of the building at No. 83 Mercer street damage to the amount of over $2,000 occurred.

Epstein & Margolis dealers in cloaks and suits, occupy the third floor of the floor below H. Schapiro & Co., silk waists, sustained a loss of $2,000 and the ceilings of the restaurant of William Brinkhauser, on the first floor, were ruined. The building is owned by the Leopold Weil estate.

PAPA—Oh, what a pain! I believe I have a fever in the heart.
MAMMA—Nonsense, it isn't your heart, it's your stomach. Every time you eat this hot weather, you get a sour stomach full of hot gases and acids, and you swell up until your heart hardly has room to beat. If you were not so obstinate, you'd take my advice and keep your insides cool by taking a CASCARET Candy Cathartic every night before going to bed. They work while you sleep and keep you regular in the hottest weather.

CATARRH A COMMON COMPLAINT.

Catarrh begins with a stubborn cold in the head, inflammation or sore-ness of the membrane or lining of the nose, discharge of mucus matter, headaches, neuralgia and difficult breathing, and even in this early stage is almost intolerable. But when the filthy secretions begin to drop back into the throat and stomach, and the blood becomes polluted and the system contaminated by the catarrh, then the sufferer begins to realize what a distressing and sickening disease Catarrh is. It affects the kidneys and stomach as well as other parts of the body. It is a constitutional disease and as inhaling mixtures, salves, ointments, etc., are never more than palliative or helpful, even in the beginning of Catarrh, what can you expect from such treatment when it becomes chronic and the whole system affected?
Only such a remedy as S. S. S. can reach this obstinate, deep-seated disease and purge the blood of the catarrhal poison. S. S. S. purifies and builds up the diseased blood, and the inflamed membranes are healed and the excessive secretion of mucus ceases when new, rich blood is coming to the diseased parts, and a permanent cure is the result.
S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and a reliable remedy for Catarrh in all stages. Write if in need of medical advice; this will cost you nothing.

In Two Weeks--INVENTORY

From now until August 31st Stock Clearances will keep us busy reducing and selling.

"Sitting at the foot of a hill, bearing right, won't bring you to the top, but Patience, Perseverance, and Sweet Oil will take a stroll to Jerusalem." as an old schoolmaster used to impress upon his pupils.

That is the way we feel about Stock Taking—no one wishing it was over—rather lighten the task by extra efforts to reduce stock.... It takes Pluck, Perseverance and the Sweet Oil of Reduced Prices to clean out stocks as thoroughly as we desire, but we don't spare work or profits when Inventory comes around.
